PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☒ To issue a warrant
☐ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On February 24, 2012, the offender was arrested by the Parsippany Police Department and charged with the following offenses: Aggravated Assault, 2nd Degree (two counts), Aggravated Assault, 3rd Degree (two counts), Unlawful Possession of a Weapon, 4th Degree, Possession of a Weapon for Unlawful Purpose, 3rd Degree, and Certain Persons Not to Have Weapon, 4th Degree.

According to the Parsippany Police Department, on February 20, 2012, officers responded on the scene of Davis' residence to find two female victims who had been assaulted by him prior to their arrival, and the offender barricaded inside his apartment. The two female victims, an ex-girlfriend of the offender and her mother, had come to see the offender due to concerns of his mental state. When he answered the door covered in blood and holding a knife, the ex-girlfriend attempted to grab the knife out of his hands, resulting in lacerations on her hand. The offender then proceeded to stab her mother in the stomach, causing serious bodily injury.

Upon officers' forceful entry inside, the apartment was covered in blood, and found on the kitchen floor was a large kitchen knife with a serrated edge, also covered in blood. They also found the offender to be covered in blood, kneeling next to a knife, approximately 10 inches in length, which was soaked in blood. Officers were eventually able to apprehend the offender, who repeatedly had his hand hovering over the knife. He was transferred to the hospital for severe self-inflicted wounds, including a severed wrist, stab wounds, and lacerations on his neck.

The charges are pending in Morris County Superior Court and the offender is scheduled to be housed at the Ann Klein Forensic Center, located in West Trenton, New Jersey. This center is a psychiatric hospital for individuals suffering from mental illness within the legal system.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
